

Cuyahoga Falls City Council
Minutes of the Special Committee Meeting
January 11, 2010

Members: Mark Ihasz, Chair
Don Walters
Terry Mader

Mr. Ihasz called the meeting to order at 6:37 p.m. All members were present.

Discussion

Mr. Ihasz stated the purpose of the Special Committee meeting was to discuss the Mayor's appointments to various Boards and Commissions within the City. Mayor Robart stated there are five appointments. All but one are re-appointments. The new appointment is Dan Rice, who is in Washington this evening and could not be present. Dan is the CEO of the Ohio Erie & Canalway Coalition. The Mayor is pleased to have him on the Planning Commission given his background in this field. He is a wonderful addition to the Planning Commission. Jack Weisensell is an attorney with Amer Cunningham & Brennan. His term carries him into 2014. Karen Nelsch is a re-appointment and is well-known by Council. Helen McWilliams is a wife and mother in the community. She came to him a while ago and told him she wanted to serve the community. She is also very active with Adopt-a-Spot. She and her family are very committed to the community. Cheryl Bruce is a reappointment. She is the wife of Kirk Bruce, the preacher at Pilgrim United Church of Christ. They have been here for ten years. Mr. Ihasz thanked everyone for volunteering for these positions and for serving in their community.

Committee recommended bringing out the appointments.

Mr. James stated there is an update on the Committee-on-Committees report. They are adding Mrs. Klinger in place of Mrs. Pyke on Moral Claims. Also, Mr. James will be the first alternate on the Planning Commission.

Meeting adjourned at 6:41 p.m.
